is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the traveling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this house is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apariment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost and certain portions of it, especially the drawing-rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasted in manufacture. The dining-rooms are capacious, and the bours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveler's Home.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Ready This Day, THE GREATEST ROMANCE OF THE AGE, WACOUSTA; OR, THE PROPHECY, AN INDIAN TALE, by Major Richardson, author Ecarte," "Hardscrabble," etc. etc.

If the proposition be true that books are like wine, inas much as it is improved and tested by age, then will the au. ther of "Waccusta" be of undying fame; for we have just risen from the re-perusal of this celebrated work with the firm conviction that in the effective management of an exciting plot, in description of border warfare, and especially in powerful delineation of Indian character, he has never been excelled; and, in our opinion, only equalled by Murray in his "Prairie Bird," and Cooper in his "Leather Stock, ing Tales;" and the simple but manly hero of that series is Interest than the cunning, vast strength, hair-breadth escapes, and unquenchable hatred of the fierce Wacousta. The women are all that they should be; simple-hearted self-sacrificing, devoted women, and their influence has a softening effect upon the harsher features of the work.
